

Liturgie- und Pilgerheft

entgegen der Zusage gibt uns Sydney NICHT vorab Einblicke in die Liturgie.

Dies aus zwei Gründen:

- vor Ort kann der Liturgie mit deutscher Übersetzung (mit allergrößter Wahrscheinlichkeit) per Knopf im Ohr über eine Radiofrequenz verfolgt werden.
- Gruppen, die die Liturgie zuhause „mit“- oder „nachfeiern“ wollen, finden beizeiten alle wichtigen Infos auf der WYD-Homepage.

Anders wird das Pilgerheft gehändelt.

Hier liegt uns bald ein Vorabentwurf zu, den wir ggfls so oder in Übersetzung ins Netz stellen.

Antwort aus Sydney

...The response was IDENTICAL for all the requests that we received. I've included the response below. Unfortunately, as you will read, WYD isn't releasing the texts, even for translation purposes. I've tried to point out a few ways that the texts will be available in the WYD week... even though I know this was not what your bishops conference wanted! Ask me if you have any questions. -

we regret to inform you that we cannot provide you with the pre-event texts that you requested. Though we in no way wish to dissuade you and your pilgrims from participating in the events, whether in Sydney or in your home country, we are unable to release information prior to events.

As an alternate way to establish a concurrent event in your home country, we recommend that you avail yourselves and your pilgrims of the Host Broadcast and its companion satellite programs, which will be reporting the events during the WYD08 week.

We also recommend utilizing the WYD website in the days preceding each event; at that time, we may be posting outlines and texts for the upcoming events.

For those who will attend WYD in Sydney, we are striving to provide live radio translations of events in as many languages as possible.
